

Good Year For The Papers

A Balladeer

our fireworks at New Year were the bomb the fun was short in a bar miles further on the drama it was all over the news

I was up watching from the couch all night with no one there to release my tunnel sight where were you when all hell broke loose just a few disasters later it doesn't take that much to see it's been a good year for the papers and a bad one for me

Bush says it is now an eye for an eye our Queen Bea thinks that soon we'll all turn blind me I'm just scared that we ain't seen nothing yet

where were you when all hell broke los
