

Once A Dreamer...

A Balladeer

I was this dreamer in advance then life showed up in the middle of my plans so maybe it was not the pact it sure was good - the best in fact

I may say I have changed ý

I have cried and sworn a lot once it was gone I saw what I got I reminisce more than I should but I miss feeling special and looking good

I may say I have changed ý
I sure have changed and I do dream, it's just not the same sometimes I think I really hate you for the doubter I became
