

Robin II

A Balladeer

well, it's been a few days now, so how have you been?
not that I must know what state you're in

I should care less well, I just bawled my eyes out and feel really relieved not that I threw up be enough to fully retrieve

I'm still a mess

but what really helps a lot is the knowledge that it's nothing but the time it takes you gave me meals for thought and Robin a laughing break how quickly will he re-enter the lists?
don't correct me if I'm wrong I'm sure that grudge exists, especially his and that mine will make a brilliant song

lately I have not been that close with time the weekends seem the worst ever since they're all mine and it's hard to get through well, congratulations - you entered the Torture Top 3 and by the way already not happy anniversary here's to you and your cool here's to me and my catch-22

it is funny - not at all half as funny as to call me Robin by mistake don't correct me if I'm wrong
I'm sure that grudge exists (especially his💎)
and that mine will make a brilliant song

a brilliant song
