

Every Second

A Change of Pace

The last drop of the bottle fell out
Reluctant not to crash
Enter fading lights
From top of the stage
Set in broken glass

And all these tears and pain
Silent but screaming
Out every name that we've ever loved

And I'll remember every second
Every moment
This can't last forever

The last drop of the bottle fell out
And we were way too late
To save a friend in need
From his family
That didn't treat him right

And all these tears and pain
Silent but screaming
Out every name that that we've ever loved

And I'll remember every second
Every moment
This can't last forever

Every second
Of every moment
Nothing lasts forever

Don't worry
About me
I'll be fine this time

Don't worry
About me
I'll be fine this time
This time

And I'll remember every second
Every moment
This can't last forever

Every second
Of every moment
Nothing lasts forever

Let us breathe softly
And keep this quiet
No one has to know
No one has to know

Let us breathe softly
And keep this quiet
No one has to know

No one has to know

Know... know... know...
