

War In Your Bedroom

A Change of Pace

It's a war in your bedroom baby
I'd cut off my tongue for just a taste
of a piece of your flesh my darling
I've got no time to hesitate

The bathroom's fogging up with our heartbeats, sweat for me
I watch your nails scraping down the back of my neck
I've got a burning in my chest - its calling for your thighs
This is me and you, you and me for the first time

I've been waiting you've been dreaming of everything I'm talking about

It's a war in your bedroom baby
I'd cut off my tongue for just a taste
of a piece of your flesh my darling
We've got no time to hesitate x2

I've got a picture perfect memory under the covers
I'll say exactly what you want to hear, I'll make you scream
There's not a drop of your innocence when you shiver
Don't go love, stay all night, now you're mine

I've been waiting you've been dreaming of everything I'm talking about

It's a war in your bedroom baby
I'd cut off my tongue for just a taste
of a piece of your flesh my darling
We've got no time to hesitate x2

Sex is everywhere (sex is everywhere)
It's you and me
It's you to me x3

It's a war in your bedroom...
It's a war in your bedroom...

It's a war in your bedroom baby
I'd cut off my tongue for just a taste
of a piece of your flesh my darling
We've got no time to hesitate x2
