

This Sun Has Set

A Day to Remember

This sun has set on your heart chances for redemption and i have forgotten your name and i thought it'd be easy to move on completely forgetting what was real and what was

Forget the past
don't for once think you're better than what i have you're the reason i never trusted anyone Forget the past
don't for once think you're better than what i have
you're the reason i never trusted anyone

Just to forget
wouldn't make me as happy as it would to hate
Just to forgive is so much more than you are worth

Think the time i spent well so do i
and you
tore
my life apart

Single breath
you could've cared less if i was dead if i was dead

Just to forget
wouldn't make me as happy as
it would to hate
Just to forgive is so much more
than you are worth
worth

You care so much about yourself
that it makes me sick to think of you

Do you think how much i lost for you?
