

I Wasn't Born Again Yesterday

A Faylene Sky

You'll never look back
Or was it something about me
A million lives a mile away
We'll never find them
Look back
I know I'm wrong
I know you're right
It's all about me
These words will haunt me
The end it wasn't over
Was it natural
Was the summer
The end it wasn't over
Was it natural
Was the summer
A million lives
So close yet so far away
A million times
Well see this through to the end
I'll show you what I've got
I'm the next big thing
Don't you want it
Like a lie
I'll fill your thoughts up with my mind
Now I've got your attention
Let it be known
Everything that you are is dead wrong
The end it wasn't over
Was it natural
Was the summer
The end it wasn't over
Was it natural
Was the summer
I'll say you're into me
With me
With me
You're living the life
What's wrong
