If we were children
I would bake you a mud pie
Warm n brown beneath the sun
Never learned to climb a tree
But I would try
Just to show you what I'd done

Oh, what I wouldn't do
If I had you, babe
I had you
Oh, what I wouldn't do
If I had you, babe

If I were old, my dearest
You woulld be older
But I would crawl upon your lap
Wrap a blanket 'round our frail little shoulders
And I'd die happily like that

Oh, what I wouldn't do
If I had you, babe
If I had you
Oh, what I wouldn't do
If I had you, babe
I had you

So laze your hands 'round the small of my back And I will kiss you, like a king I will be your bride I'll keep you warm at night I will sing, I will sing

It was now and we were both in the same place I didn't know how to say the words With my heart ticking Like a bomb in a birdcage I left before someone got hurt

Cuz it was, what I wouldn't do I might, if I had you It was, what I wouldn't do When I had you, babe When I had you
