

Wishing

A Flock of Seagulls

It's not the way you look
It's not the way that you smile
Although there's something to them
It's not the way you have your hair

It's not that certain smile
It could be that with you

If I had a photograph of you
It's something to remind me
I wouldn't spend my life just wishing
It's not the make up and it's not the way that you dance

It's not the evening sky
It's more the way your eyes are laughing as they glance
Across the great divide

If I had a photograph of you
It's something to remind me

I wouldn't spend my life just wishing
It's not the things you say it's not the things you do

It must be something more
And if I feel this way for so long

Tell me
Is it all for nothing just don't walk out the door
If I had a photograph of you
It's something to remind me

I wouldn't spend my life just wishing
