

American Culture

A Global Threat

We're gonna fight it till the end
And we won't be beat down again
Your culture's fed into our veins
Your preaching tyranny and hate
To follow in your footsteps would be hypocrisy
So now's the time to fight for our beliefs
Are we the only ones here who won't judge your sexuality?
Are we the only ones here who want equality?
Are we the only ones here who won't judge you by your skin?
Are we the only ones here who know together we can win?
