

Bring Back Recess

A Great Big Pile Of Leaves

rainy day,
come out and play.
no one likes you,
but that's okay.

on the hottest of days,
you take care of me.
it's been so blue lately,
so come out and bring the grey.
it's going to be a lovely day,
despite all the sunlight getting in the way.
melancholy, it's the new happy. an umbrella is where you should
spend your money,
if you want to take that hair-do seriously.
bring back recess!
it's for the best.

popularity,
it's never been your thing.
and fashionably late,
it's too long of a wait.
