

Spanish For Smile

A Great Big Pile Of Leaves

walking so softly,
but loud at the same time.
floating and flying,
with such glow and shine.
i am knocked speechless as my jaw meets the cold floor,
because an explosion is taking over.

with just a little bit of beautiful.

i'm controlled with a smile,
so smile.
and i'll be frozen in my shoes,
but dancing on fire.

your powers grab hold,
of me and all of my senses.
bouncing and tingling all over,
you're so stunning.
i am down for the count and now i'm seeing stars,

with just a little bit of beautiful.
