

The Size Of Dinosaurs

A Great Big Pile Of Leaves

the sunlight is only a moment away, but i'm not ready for the night to end,
i've been trying so hard to stay awake,
to stay awake all night.

seeing stars,
from the front seat of your car.
feeling dizzyier than before,
maybe a few hours more,
maybe a few hours more.

just getting started,
even though i can't stand up straight.
balancing on a broken leg,
and stumbling around with my friends.

down pour,
down pour,
down pour.
comfortable,
don't move a muscle.
down pour,
down pour.
