

Anyone

A Life Divided

live, everyone should live everyone should be the same as simple as it is give and everyone should give everyone should give a part

'cause it does matter

what's your excuse?

anyone lives by the oceans
while anyone drowns in the sea and anyone is breathing the ashes of conspiracy

miss, everyone should miss the reason for his calm the reason for his bliss this this couldn't end up like this just like a servant's bound to fall we're about to lose it all

what's your excuse?

of conspiracy
(2x)

didn't believe that
we're about to lose control
didn't believe that we were wrong didn't believe it, we didn't believe it
