

Heaven

A Life Divided

these useless hanging ropes are there to stumble
hear the silence in these words and stay with me
the machines coming mean with a better life in between better get yourself a piece before they leave

heaven awaits you
to be ready

oh kill this bitterness when it sucks my energy love me in this place
I built for myself
cover my eyes somehow
tell me lies right now
show me ways out of here wipe away these tears
no one will survive in the end
