

Words

A Life Divided

We live somewhere in between the cycles
Abandoned and distained
We betrayed all of our good disciples
Got lost along the way

Words don't come that easy
Words expose the secret
Words became a lie
I only want you to long for me
And make you see

We live somewhere in between the distance
Where we've been left alone
We denied all of their wise assistance
Searching for a home

Words don't come that easy
Words expose the secret
Words became a lie
I only want you to long for me
And make you see

Bring me down

Words don't come that easy
Words expose the secret
Words became a lie
I only want you to long for me
And make you see
