A Life Once Lost

What happens stays here, right?
This is nothing but a miserable lesson learned.
What we share together will not end up falling out of someone else's lips.
I must, fight with shadows in my own defense and worst of all,
their names I do not know.
Tell me do I disgust you?
Is it disgust or amusement?
That catches your attention; That draws you near.
Is it disgust or amusement?
Disgust or amusement, which is it?
