

Hallows Or Horcruxes

A Lot Like Birds

"It doesn't even exist..."

I am used to weight
Commanded it to carry me away
It dissolved when the day came...
And I lost it too...

"But I'm beginning to think
That maybe if we stopped with half as much as I can find
Well I can't find it now!"

Well it's alright now
That I'm lying in your bed
It's alright now...

Well it's alright now
That I'm lying in your bed
Your bed...

(Well It's alright now)
But I'm beginning to think
(That I'm lying in your bed)
That maybe if we stopped with half as much as I can find
(it's alright now...)
Well I can't find it now!
