

Slay The Masses

A Perfect Murder

Dawn's first light rips through me like razor blades
I hold my breath and break the glass that holds me

I will continue the fight and bleed the enemy
I will continue the hunt and slay the masses

Breathe out, I breath in My breath is so frozen right in front of me
My hate grips me, shakes me, tears me
Believe me. I wont ever stop hurting you until I hear you screa m
Vengeance on you cannot replace my loss
It is lost, but your suffering is mine forever more

I will continue the fight and bleed the enemy
I will continue the hunt and slay the masses

Breathe out,I breath in
My breathe is so frozen right in front of me
My hate grips you, shakes you, tears you
Believe me, I won't ever stop hurting you until I see you bleed
Blackened fear rips through you like razor blades
As I bury you into the earth
