

Snake Eyes

A Perfect Murder

I walk on this earth to do unto others
But what is that worth?
My convictions are right
I convict all those that are unjust in my eyes

Look around and tell me what's justified
All you know is just a lie

Justified, your Messiah's suicide
Don't preach to me
Become a martyr on your own fucking time
Straight through the seams
Unforgiveness rains down in streams
Your story unfolds
All of madness remains controlled

Look around and tell me what's justified
All you know is just a lie

Death and destruction
Dishonor and lies
Take the cup, drink of his blood and look through the snake's eyes
Don't question me or dare reject me
Save all your scorn
Just believe in me and you'll breathe in the after life forever more Slave for me, can't choose for yourself
Become God-like if you sacrifice your will Your blood and your life
