

Suffocation Of Thought

A Perfect Murder

Dying to self, more than you'll ever know
I sever the ties that bind me and I'll drop so low
Suffocation of thought before I breath to speak
I'm feeling this way cause I'm broken inside
And it makes me feel so goddamn weak

I rise up to fight back because enough is enough
I'll beat you with hate and I'll tell you it's love
It's all of our pride that keeps us so strong
It's all we have left that helps us belong

There's no trust because there's no end
I will never be a victim again
My turn to deliver and become so strong
Sadistic and twisted is what I have become
It makes me smile to make you hurt
I laugh in your face with tears in your eyes

Now rise up to fight back cause enough is enough
I'll beat you with hate and I'll tell you it's love
Confidence that we'll overcome all of the things that life has undone

To all the weak fucks that change trend to trend
Every time a new one begins
We can spot you one and all
So to you I say
FUCK YOU ALL

Suffocation of thought before I breathe to speak
I'm feeling this way cause I'm broken inside
And it makes me feel so goddamn weak

I rise up to fight back cause enough is enough
I'll beat you with hate and I'll tell you it's love
It's all of our pride that keeps us so strong
Confident that we'll overcome life's trends
