

Alone

A Place to Bury Strangers

Oh
Hear the sound
On the tracks and on the run
Now
Now you're down
Stupid shit you better run

What
What the fuck
Don't play with my heart
I said what
What the fuck
Don't play with my heart
Who am I

Dream
But dream alone

Driving fast and driving thin
Dream
And dream you're home
Live in fast and live in sin

You're all alone
Now you're all alone
Now you're all alone again
I said you're fucked up girl
You won't come down
Don't take me down
Now you're all alone again

Down
I let you in
Holding love and hold it in
Feeling bad
And looking thin
Holding on and holding in
