

I Will Die

A Place to Bury Strangers

And I will lose 'cause you've got that I want
And I will lose 'cause you've got
And I will die 'cause you want that I want
And I will lose 'cause you want if I'm right

And I will die again and again, and again
And I will die again and again, and again
And I will die again and again, and again
And I will die again and again, and again

'Cause I will lose and I will lose
And I will lose, and I will lose

'Cause I will die again and again, and again
And I will die again and again, and again
And I will die again and again, and again
And I will die again and again, and again
