

Straight

A Place to Bury Strangers

Be that's rock, get on, don't lie, far
Don't take it slow, wanna (?) and I'm wasted away
Don't wanna lose a moment, what I got to lose?
This what is I want but what I ever have 'cause you've got you
I'm straight, not to care it all
That stop, I'll do it all
I wanna feel so lucky standing next to you
I wanna feel so lucky but (?) is on the wall

'Cause you've got you, you've got you
You've got you, you've got you, you've got you

You've got you, you've got you, you've got you, you've got you
You've got you, you've got you, you've got you, you've got you
