A Plea for Purging

Drown me in your lies

And your unrepentant selfishness
Blood thirsty and deceitful
We were to be sheep among wolves
Oh but our flesh never tasted so good

You call me your brother
You call me your family
But you lie to my face
Look me in the eye you coward
I ought to put you in the ground

You die with your secrets
We all die with our secrets

I question your loyalty
Shed your skin
You were never one of us
I question your loyalty
Drink the blood
You were never one of us

I will never trust the hands of men
Never trust again
Will never trust the hands of men
Never trust again...

We walk in the same circles
We walk the same streets
But Im not hiding in dark corners
How did you think you could keep this from me?
I cant think of one thing

Big enough to lie about
Thats small enough not to matter

You kept your enemies closer than you kept me
Not cause youre scared of defeat, but so your lies cant be seen
