

Fallen Heroes

A.S.A.P.

Heart of a lion fight to the end
Run like the wind
Champions of champions, best in the land, you always win
Don't fade away, don't fade away
Run with your dream right to the end
Your spirit flies on eagle's wings
Never coming down

Fallen heroes no more worship
Where have all the good times gone
Once I stood atop this mountain
Glory days set like the sun
Sitting all alone staring at the screen, thinking of the past
Living in a land of faded memories
Realise that nothing lasts

Don't fade away, don't fade away
Reach out to you but you're not there
Your soul was never meant to be
Tied to the ground

Fallen heroes no more worship
Where have all the good times gone
Once I stood atop this mountain
Glory days set like the sun
Took away my fame and fortune
Left me with no place to go
Fallen hero, modern reject
They don't remember yesterday

The hero falls into disgrace
Out of time and out of place
Still part of me and part of you
Would love to be a hero too
