

The Jesus Haircut

A Static Lullaby

It's time we took this holiday
We thank you and send our regards
The beach is great, this time of year
4th of June we see
The first sight of snow we'll sing
and this was beautiful (and this is beautiful)
and this was beautiful (and this is beautiful)

And you might feel (that this is a better way of saying)
We trusted you (we trusted you, we trusted you)

Praise! Fuck! Destroy!
Praise! Fuck! Destroy!
Praise! Fuck! Destroy!
Praise! Fuck! Destroy!

And maybe we'll say you lost your tongue
Behind your plate of lies
We know your starving for
The chance to make this right
A silent song that's left of your Important stories
The honest have let you go
For breach of your contract

And you might feel (that this is a better way of saying)
We trusted you (we trusted you, we trusted you)

Praise! Fuck! Destroy!
Praise! Fuck! Destroy!
Praise! Fuck! Destroy!
Praise! Fuck! Destroy!

We trusted you
I trusted you....

We've all played the part
We've all played the part
played the part
played the part
played the part....
