

Three Withered Roses

A Toys Orchestra

Somebody is knocking at your door three withered roses and a bit of love the wearied smile of who arrives too late nobody knows my name but evrybody calls me sometimes before the night arrives into my room the smaller stars let me know before.