She's back on the streets
And vein for the night
Feel you with grief She cuts like a knife
Make you do things that no others could do
She turned a professor into a fool
Oh

Those that she meats are destined to drown
She makes you change like you never believe
She turns a working man into a thief

She'll be your friend as long as you spend
I know she torn whole family's apart
She shoot a poison aero straight to your heart
Oh

There's nothing lose nothing to gain
She'll make a honest man steal from his folks
And turn a man into legal broke
