

Bob's Your Uncle

Aaradhna

You think you sleep
Staying out at night
But you know damn right you is wrong

You're running all over town
While your man waits around
At home thinking that you're with your girl

But he don't know
That you out here, making him look like a fool no
No, no he don't know
That you out here doing him dirty
He don't know
Another man is giving his lady love
He don't know
Cause if he did he'd kick you out that door

You said Bob's your uncle
Terry is your cousin
Bruce is your brother
So is Kevin
Say uh uh uh uh uh
You keep on telling them lies
I say uh uh uh uh uh
You know you're somebody's wife

Now what makes you think
That the birdies won't sing?
About all of them secrets you hold
You ho-old
Whatever goes up
Must come back down
Shit like this always hits the ground

But he don't know
That you out here, making him look like a fool no
No, no he don't know
That you out here doing him dirty
He don't know
Another man is giving his lady love
He don't know
Cause if he did he'd kick you out that door

You said Bob's your uncle
Terry is your cousin
Bruce is your brother
So is Kevin
Say uh uh uh uh uh
You keep on telling them lies
I say uh uh uh uh uh
You know you're somebody's wife

So we're talking
Up with the man and ask you
Who was your friend and you said
It was your uncle, it was your brother
It was your cousin

Bo-bo-bo-bo-bo-Bob is your uncle

You said Bob's your uncle
Terry is your cousin
So is Kevin

Keep on, keep on telling them
