

I Am Your Cup

Aaron Gillespie

Here I am, I'm looking for a place to hide
Her is my soul broken and needing a home
I need You, will You come in?

I am Your cup, come fill me with Your love
My heart is in Your hands
It's broken for You, oh Lord

Here I am, I've found a safe place to hide
In your arms my soul has found home

I love You, I'll let the whole world know

With hands lifted high I'll bless Your name
With our hearts full of love we will sing Your grace
