

You Are My Everything

Aaron Gillespie

When my head is spinnin' 'round
This whole world has brought me down
There is one thing I know
When my life is screamin' loud
I look up towards the clouds
Your grace lets me know
Your grace lets me know

I am alive because You said
I could be
I'm not alone because Your love
Is everything I need
When my world comes crashin' down
There's just one thing I've found
You are, You are
My everything

With every ounce of my soul
I wanna let You know
It's in You, I'm found
With every beat of my heart
I know that You're giving me a start
One that is brand new
Now I'm callin' out to You

I am alive because You said
I could be
I'm not alone because Your love
Is everything I need
When my world comes crashin' down
There's just one thing I've found
You are, You are
My everything

My everything
In my day, You're everything
In my night, You're everything
In my world, You're everything
In my heart, You're everything
In my soul, You're everything
In my life, You're everything

I am alive because You said
I could be
I'm not alone because Your love
Is everything I need
When my world comes crashin' down
There's just one thing I've found
You are, You are
My everything

HEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEYYYYYYYYY!
You're my everything
HEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEYYYYYYYYY!
