She locked her fingers Bowed her head She said I'm late And I'm really scared You can go But I hope you stay I'm gonna keep it Either way In my daddy's El Camino In her driveway in the rain Staring through the windshield I can see my future change And my heart hit like a hammer And my thoughts were running wild Any fool can make a baby It takes a man to raise a child

Laid my head
Down on the wheel
She said I know, I know
It don't seem real
She closed her eyes
But the tears broke though
She said don't hate me
For loving you

In my daddy's El Camino
In her driveway in the rain
Staring through the windshield
I can see my future change
And my heart hit like a hammer
And my thoughts were running wild
Any fool can make a baby
It takes a man to raise a child

I could not reassure her Couldn't say what I had planned Couldn't put three words together So I just took her hand

In my daddy's El Camino
In her driveway in the rain
Staring through the windshield
I can see my future change
And my heart hit like a hammer
And my thoughts were running wild
Any fool can make a baby
It takes a man to raise a child
