Na na, na na na Bobby had everything he thought he'd ever need A fancy new car and a master's degree Still he's feeling lost, with no purpose in life And nothing seems to fill the empty space inside He sees an ad on late night TV Says 'Change a kid's life with just a couple hours a week' Normally he'd keep clicking, just surfing around But something makes him stop and write that number down Oh, it's amazing how love changes everything Na na, na na na Love changes everything Na na, na na na Well, Sara does her best just to keep the faith But ever since he left, its hard to find the strength She wipes a tear from her eye as she puts the groceries on the shelf Cause after dinner, baths and homework, there's no time for herself Two jobs, two kids, too tired to fight No money, no romance, no end in sight Just when she thinks she can't go on She sees a painting on the fridge that says 'I love you Mom' Oh, it's amazing how love changes everything Na na, na na na Love changes everything Na na, na na na Well, I know we've got problems We've got to figure out, baby Yeah, I know we haven't been talking or touching much lately But I know this love's Got a lot of life left in it Oh, so let me hold you close, I don't wanna let you go Baby, let me know, we won't wait another minute Na na, na na na Love changes everything Na na na na Na na na na

It can change the world, it can change your mind

Na na na na, na na na

It can change your tire in the middle of the night It can change your name, it can change your heart It can change your tune, it can change your life