Firm Foundation

Aaron Shust

Oh I have found a rock where I can stand When every other ground is sinking sand Oh I have found the truth that breaks the dark And love that mends a broken shattered heart

Oh how firm a foundation What a comfort and peace I am found in the arms of Jesus Christ my King

Thought fiery trials in my pathway lie
His all sufficient grace is my supply
And though sorrow and trouble 'round me rage
He will be my refuge in the flame

Oh how firm a foundation What comfort and peace I am found in the arms of Jesus

Oh how firm a foundation What confidence He brings I am found in the arms of Jesus Christ my King

Fear not He is with us Oh be not dismayed Fear not He is with us Oh be not dismayed

Oh how firm a foundation What comfort and peace I am found in the arms of Jesus

Oh how firm a foundation What confidence He brings I am found in the arms of Jesus Christ my King
