

Everyone's a genius
Brushing up on irony
But no, no ones free
Everyone's a salesman
Gushing with sincerity
Or so, so it seems

I wanna go another round
I wanna throw the monster down
I wanna go another round
'Cause I am coming up
I am coming back

Everyone's a rock star
Look how cool and dark you are
Oh whats to come
Of me now
Bust out the mission
Well, bust a hole and you'll be free
Okay, then we'll be free

I wanna go another round
I wanna throw the monster down
I wanna go another round
'Cause I am coming up
I am coming back

Lay me on the table
Operate on me
Spin me like a record
Scratch the needle
Back and forth

I wanna go another round
I wanna throw the monster down
I wanna go another round
I wanna throw the monster down
I wanna go another round
'Cause I am coming up
I am coming back
I am coming up
I am coming back
