

Back To Hell

Abattoir

I have scars, i feel the pain
I'm that close from going insane
This gun i have is the only way
To get me through another day

Back to hell

Light and smoke fill the skies
Bringing vengeance to my eyes
Where can i run where can i go
Hell is the only home i know

Back to hell

My mind has been glazed with lies
I'm a killer in disguise
Crushing victims like a vise
Trained for years to be precise
I lost the battle and the war
Social outcast to the core
Falling deeper in a evil well
It seems i left and went back to hell

Back to hell
