

Stronger Than Evil

Abattoir

I see the swords - i hear the sound
My comrades falling to the ground
We're fighting till the very end
My mind is hell-bent on revenge

Stronger than evil - no longer a fool
Stronger than evil - too strong for you
Stronger than evil - soldier in command
Stronger than evil - more powerful than man

The power in my hand is free
Shining bright for all to see
You've rejected all i said
But it's too late you've expired
Now you're dead

Overloaded and loving it all
Is something i love to hate
Crushing the skulls of those who won't
Follow - i can hardly wait
Revenge is mine i'll pay you back
I'll make you earn your tears
I'm coming back to take what's mine
I'll see you in 7 years

Fire waits for those who fall
And follow not the master's call
The mark upon your forehead ticks
Beware - the mark is 666
