

Born to Win

Abband

We often have a hoarse voice to be fans was our choice but faith is our strength Often cheers all our choir want's to be helpful more and more and take sides for any length

So let's start the game let the show begin
you were born to lose
we were born to win
Let the flags fly the colors of our team
you were born to lose
we were born to win

Referee's like a toreador strange creator at all at fault time to lynch him before the end Well we will manage this fight against all, we are right let this message be sent

So let's start the game ...
