

Good News from Heaven

Abband

I'm back from heaven, a new place for sinners new motivation for all beginners They want to fill their capacity start to make changes, to make it all pretty And on their blacklist, there are only killers fat politicians and other drillers Afterlife now means a nonstop party we'll all be together, the show has started

Tasting the freedom of eagles far from depression, worries of living tasting the freedom of eagles death really means the new beginning

Good news from heaven
we're on a new level God's started to drink and smoke and he's listening to rock'n'roll Good news from heaven
we're on a new level
angels love sex and are really glad to make love to all

I'm back from heaven, I spoke with Zeus all preachers sermons are erroneous he's open minded, knows what is better heaven's anthem is now heavy metal Growler Saint Peter sells beer in bottles and for the tourists tickets for shuttles To get inside now, is not too risky give him a present, a bottle of whisky
