Heart of the Machine (cover Motorband)

Blasting sounds ripping the silence Ears, they could not believe Hesitate to stop the violence It's not easy to leave

Prepare here for exclamation "reach out and touch your faith" Look forward now, you're unforgiven Destiny won't wait

Heart of the machine Chained power inside steelbelting Heart of the machine No chance to tame the beat Don't try it now

False demands on eternity The hope will never relieve Indolence of indoctrination A fool can only achieve

Hunt'em down for desperation Lock the fortified gate No matter how, it depends on you Cure them from malicious hate
