

Send Them to Hell

Abband

Maybe we're living on the other side of Eden reason is beaten and pop music from Sweden the only rulers are the rich and the priests rest of the people unnecessary beasts Maybe we're living on the other side of Eden and mostly punished for any reason homeland is a country for the rest of the world and you have no chance to say a word Nope to tolerate
nope to tolerate

Politicians make fools of everyone breaking the law is all that they have done and now it's time to tell: „Send them to hell!” What can we do not to live in world of lie I wanna cry before I have to die that now it's time to tell: "Send them to hell!"

The world explodes due to the faith color of skin is a reason to hate traditions trampled, Mosques in the squares and new religions are sold at the fairs Maybe we're living on the other side of Eden time just to run, starting the open season homeland is a country for the rest of the world
and you have no chance to say a word Nope to tolerate
nope to tolerate

Politicians make fools of everyone...
