

Between You and Me

ABC

So trouble comes strolling through the door
But anything worth having`s worth fighting for Fiction or fact you`ll supply the plot
We`ll both be featured - like it or not

Yes I guess you think I`m stupid and brutal
I should confess that the feeling is mutual

It`s not between the devil and the deep blue see
Not between the truth and hypocrisy
Not between freedom and democracy...
But between you - between you...
Between you and me
Between you - between you...
Between you and me

The stars and stripes meet the hammer and sickle
Not for honour but roubles and nickles
It ain`t fisticuffs, it`s a full scale war
Your secrets no secret anymore

Yes I guess you think I`m stupid and brutal
I should confess that the feeling is mutual

It`s not between the devil and the deep blue see
Not between the truth and hypocrisy
Not between freedom and democracy...
But between you - between you...
Between you and me
Between you - between you...
Between you and me

So trouble comes strolling through the door...
