

Blame

ABC

Politician puppets are preaching in high places
Trying to hide the fear written on their faces
Facing a future, liquidating hope
Freezing the fire, your dreams go up in smoke

Carry the weight of this world
You're gonna do more harm than good
You're gonna lose yourself in responsibility

Don't blame your heart, don't blame your soul
Don't blame your lack of self-control
Lay the blame on me
Don't blame the sun, don't blame the sky
Blame yourself and I'll ask why
Lay the blame on me

Bossanova bandits, thieves and self-proclaimers
Are leading a life of crime, designed to entertain us
The poor and the needy, the rich and the privileged
Open up a great divide when all we need's a bridge

Carry the weight of this world
You're gonna do more harm than good
You're gonna lose yourself in responsibility

Don't blame your heart, don't blame your soul
Don't blame your lack of self-control
Lay the blame on me
Don't blame the sun, don't blame the sky
Blame yourself and I'll ask why
Lay the blame on me

Carry the weight of this world
You're gonna do more harm than good
You're gonna lose yourself in responsibility

Don't blame your heart, don't blame your soul
Don't blame your lack of self-control
Lay the blame on me
Don't blame the sun, don't blame the sky
Blame yourself and I'll ask why
Lay the blame on me

Don't blame your heart, don't blame your soul
Don't blame your lack of self-control
Lay the blame on me
