

Life may have mercy but I've none
You can never guess what hell is like
Not a sea of fire
Nor you'll find chains of ice

But the word of God is unknown there
Nothing is what it seems
The dismal truth is so hard to face
You're just living in a dream - fear the awakening

Now enter my castle of pain
Cross the path of sorrow and fear
There'll be no light until your soul ignites
'Til your soul ignites

Realize the truth
I am the lord upon the night sky
And I'll never serve in heaven
'Cause I rule in hell

But I am still dreaming
Unsilent
