Untamed Devastation

Abigor

The limit is reached - untamed devastation

Moving down every breathing entity

Our wrath - our weapons are too real to ignore

Mercy - a forgotten word

aimless, blind ... just storming 'gainst everything

The gods you banished in the ancient days Have still been worshipped by ones you fear They gathered powr which you now loose As your god fails by your side

The two ravens are there to pick your eyes As we cry out the names of the pagan gods
