

The Illusion

Ablaze My Sorrow

I don't want to see any misery that makes me cry destroyed through with pain and sorrow to stand alone make my long sharp knife making sure that there will be no tomorrow for far long too I've longed for my death tonight is the night when I say facing goodbye a smile can be seen as I take my last breath blank turns my eyes... then I die

tonight ill be leaving this world
ill be leaving by my own hands
ill be leaving by my own hands

my life has been torn to pieces over and over again I'm tired of this shit and will take it no more for too long I've lived with the anguish and the pain ill leave this fucking life, suicidal to the core

for far long too I've longed for my death

ill be leaving by my own hands
ill be leaving by my own hands

for far long too I've longed for my death

ill be leaving by my own hands
