

False Prophecy

Abney Park

I reached from darkness,
I saw the day,
And now I'm awake.
And in my darkness,
I found the way
To transcend my fate.
I took a step toward the light of day
I took a step toward the light of day

I fled the darkness
Of broken fates,
And took apart my faith.
I fucking hate this
Self-serving cage
Of artificial rage.
I have lifted more to their masquerade
I have lifted more to their masquerade

Following the same false prophecy--
Modeling impossible destinies--
I will bring my whole life's energies
Towards the path least apt for synergy.

Following the same false prophecy--
Modeling impossible destinies--
I will bring my whole life's energies
Towards the path least apt for synergy.
