

Of Scabs and Boils

Aborted

reality drenched my miscarried life dementia seeps in, irrevocable the gods have once spoken to me

a new race I will create
I am the seed of misery spawned of fraudulent filth

dehumanized, ostracized this emetic pain demoralized, nullified, insanity reborn deranged? delusional psychose

the gods have once spoken to me

hypocrite larvae shall propagate

we are the walking dead our sanity has bled stone cold, defunct, forlorn abomination of all things
the world, my rotten seed
our apathy has spread it is to be with man before crying out: let there be death it is to be with man when our spirit moved into the dark

it is to be with and and filth he created in his image it is to be a god to take whate is your and end it all

I will reclaim what was taken from me

a new race I will create
through scabs and boils I propagate
