Above This

Here I am again
With a mouth full of senseless words
And It finally dawned on me
Whats a life without the royalty?
The strive to push yourself
And the pressure to achieve wealth
It never makes a change
You're the only one to blame this time
Look at all your friends, and look at all you know
You're such a little bitch
Your girlfriends a ho
Let me tell you something about your way of life
The only thing you worry about is where you're sleeping tonight
But it's never too late you make things right
So make a deal with yourself
Fuck the world tonight

Lift up your hands, say fuck what you're told
This is your life, and you're only getting older
Make up your mind stop wasting my time
Karma's a bitch and you're next in line
You only talk like you're the shit when you're sober
I fucked your girl I guess that's why she said it's over
Listen to me, they fucking lie straight through their teeth
I crave success and that's the only thing that matters to me
Open your eyes, you have to learn to walk before you run
So make your move bitch, times out you're done
Fuck it

(2x)

Read through the lines, take my advice tonight

This is how, to show the world what we're all about Scream your heart out, this is the movement and it's too late to turn back now
I won't help you, you're just a phase and I'll always stand above you now

(4x)

The royalty

(2x)

We are the royalty
What has come over me
Watch and learn as I will..
Push past all the lies and bullshit
I've told you once that I'm standing above this shit
But you're still just a coward
How does it feel? cause you've been overpowered
Oh, break through the lock, break through the chains
Imagine my gun going straight through your brain
Push past all the lies and the bullshit
I've told you once that I'm standing above this shit
